Abbot-Downing Historical Society

PO Box 4077

Concord, NH 03302-4077

The Abbot-Downing Historical Society was formed in 1977 by a group of Concord citizens under the name, Concord Coach Society. In 2011 its name was changed to:

Our Mission:

The mission of the Abbot-Downing Historical Society is to educate people about the significance of the Concord Coach and its historic role in American transportation. To support this mission, the society collects, preserves and interprets materials related to the Concord Coach and Abbot-Downing Company.

Membership Information:

Meetings are held monthly, usually the fourth Monday of the month. Our annual meeting is in May. Meetings are in person and on ZOOM.

The meetings include general business, special projects, and sometimes a display or talk on a subject related to Abbot and Downing, Concord Coaches, or horse drawn vehicles. On occasion, there are field trips to other locations that have items of interest such as a Concord Coach.
